

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY- SECOND REGIMENT.

THIS regiment was principally from the counties of Snyder, and Northumberland, with detachments from Clearfield, Elk, M'Kean, Union, Montour, and Butler. It was organized at Camp Curtin, during the month of November, 1862, with the following field officers: Charles Kleckner, Colonel; Thaddeus G. Bogle, Lieutenant Colonel; M. T. Heintzelman, Major. Colonel Kleckner had served as Lieutenant in the Forty-eighth Regiment. On the 2d of December, the regiment proceeded to Washington, and after a halt of two days, moved by transports to Newport News. It remained for a week, busily engaged in drill, at the end of which it marched to Yorktown, and relieved the Fifty-second Pennsylvania at the fort. Here it was soon settled in quarters, and here it spent the greater part of its term of service. The troops were kept employed in garrison duty, and drill in infantry, light and heavy artillery practice. Early in July, 1863, it was ordered to Washington, and thence proceeded to Hagerstown, Maryland, where it was attached to the Eleventh Corps. It joined in pursuit of the rebel army to Williamsport, and after the escape of the enemy across the Potomac, marched with the Eleventh Corps to Warrenton Junction. Its term of service had now expired, and returning to Harrisburg, it was mustered out on the 1st of August.
