

INDEPENDENT BATTERY A.

(SCHAFFER'S.)

INDEPENDENT Battery A was recruited in the city of Philadelphia, during the month of August, 1861. Its original strength was eighty men. It was mustered into service on the 19th of September, at the Filbert Street Arsenal, and was soon after sent to Fort Delaware, where it performed heavy artillery duty during its entire term of service. In July, 1863, it was re-inforced by new recruits, bringing its strength up to one hundred and fifty men. At the conclusion of the original term of three years, most of the men, whose terms then expired, were mustered out, and recruits were again received in sufficient numbers to preserve its strength at one hundred and fifty. It was mustered out of service at Camp Cadwalader, on the 30th of June, 1865.
